PART I
PRELIMINARY

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations are the Securities and Futures (Financial Benchmarks) Regulations 2017 and come into operation on _______.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —

   “annual report” means the audited profit and loss accounts, audited balance-sheet and auditors’ report, by whatever name called, of an authorised benchmark administrator;

   “Code on Designated Benchmark” means the code which every authorised benchmark administrator and exempt benchmark administrator must develop and publish pursuant to S123O of the Act

   “Oversight Committee” means an Oversight Committee referred to in regulation 9.

Forms

3.—(1) The forms to be used for the purposes of Part VIAA of the Act and these Regulations are those set out at the Authority’s Internet website at http://www.mas.gov.sg (under “Regulations and Financial Stability”, “Regulations, Guidance and Licensing”, “Securities, Futures and Fund Management”), and any reference in these Regulations to a numbered form shall be construed as a reference to the current version of the form bearing the corresponding number which is displayed at that website.

(2) Any document required to be lodged with the Authority under any provision of Part VIAA of the Act or these Regulations shall be lodged in the relevant form and in the manner specified in the website referred to in paragraph (1), or in such other manner as the Authority may specify from time to time.

(3) All forms used for the purposes of Part VIAA of the Act and these Regulations shall be completed in the English language and in accordance with such directions as may be specified in the form or by the Authority.

(4) The Authority may refuse to accept any form if —
   (a) it is not completed in accordance with the manner specified by the Authority; or
   (b) it is not accompanied by the relevant fee referred to in regulation 4.

(5) Where strict compliance with any form is not possible, the Authority may allow for the necessary modifications to be made to that form, or for the requirements of that form to be complied with in such other manner as the Authority thinks fit.

Fees

4.—(1) The fees specified in the First Schedule shall be payable to the Authority for the purposes specified therein and, subject to section 123I(2) of the Act, shall not be refundable.

(2) Payment of fees may be made through such electronic funds transfer system as the Authority may designate from time to time, whereby payment may be effected by directing the transfer of funds electronically from the bank account of the payer to a bank account designated by the Authority.
Keeping of books and other information

5. Every authorised benchmark administrator, exempt benchmark administrator, authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter and designated benchmark submitter shall ensure that all relevant books and other information as may be required by the Authority for the purposes of the Act are kept for a minimum of 5 years.

Record of representatives

6.—(1) Every authorised benchmark administrator and exempt benchmark administrator of a designated benchmark shall maintain a record of its representatives involved in the business of administering the designated benchmark and every authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter and designated benchmark submitter of a designated benchmark shall maintain a record of its representatives involved in the business or activity of providing information in relation to the designated benchmark.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1), the record of its representatives must include the following details of the representative:

(a) name;
(b) identity card number or passport number;
(c) address;
(d) date on which the representative commences acting as a representative in respect of the authorised benchmark administrator, exempt benchmark administrator, authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter and designated benchmark submitter; and
(e) date on which the representative ceases acting as a representative in respect of the authorised benchmark administrator, exempt benchmark administrator, authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter and designated benchmark submitter.
Application for authorisation

7. For the purposes of section S123E(2) of the Act, an application for authorisation as an authorised benchmark administrator under section S123E(1) of the Act shall be made in Form 1 and shall be lodged with the Authority together with any relevant annex and information as may be specified in the Form.

Minimum requirements for authorisation

8.—(1) For the purposes of section 123F(5) of the Act, the Authority shall not approve an applicant as an authorised benchmark administrator, unless the applicant has demonstrated to the Authority’s satisfaction that —

(a) the applicant is able to meet the obligations of, and comply with the requirements imposed on, an authorised benchmark administrator under the Act; and

(b) the applicant is able to maintain a minimum base capital of at least $10,000.

(2) In this regulation, “base capital”, in relation to an applicant, means the amount remaining after deducting any interim loss in the latest accounts of the applicant, and any dividend that has been declared since the latest audited accounts of the applicant, from the sum of the following items:

(a) the paid-up ordinary share capital of the applicant in the latest accounts of the applicant;

(b) the paid-up irredeemable and non-cumulative preference share capital of the applicant in the latest accounts of the applicant; and
(c) any unappropriated profit or loss in the latest audited accounts of the applicant.

PART III
REGULATION OF AUTHORISED BENCHMARK ADMINISTRATORS AND EXEMPT BENCHMARK ADMINISTRATORS

Division 1 — Obligations and matters relating to authorised benchmark administrators and exempt benchmark administrators

Oversight Committee

9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), every authorised benchmark administrator and exempt benchmark administrator must have an Oversight Committee for each designated benchmark it administers comprising at least one-third of members who are not any of the following persons:

(a) any of its directors, key management officers or substantial shareholders;

(b) any director, key management officer or substantial shareholder of any authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter or designated benchmark submitter providing information in relation to the designated benchmark.

(2) The Oversight Committee must include fit and proper individuals representing—

(a) the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be;

(b) the authorised benchmark submitters, exempt benchmark submitters and designated benchmark submitters; and

(c) the users of the designated benchmark.
(3) Every authorised benchmark administrator and exempt benchmark administrator must obtain the approval of the Authority for the appointment of the members of the Oversight Committee.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3), an authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator must submit to the Authority an application for approval of the appointment of a person (called an appointee in this regulation) as a member of its Oversight Committee in Form 2, and lodge with the Authority any relevant annex and information as may be specified in the Form or by the Authority from time to time.

(5) The Authority may have regard to the following criteria in determining whether to grant its approval in respect of an application under paragraph (3):

(a) whether the appointee is a fit and proper person;
(b) whether it would be contrary to the interests of the public to approve the appointment of the appointee;
(c) whether the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator of the designated benchmark, the authorised benchmark submitters, exempt benchmark submitters and designated benchmark submitters of the designated benchmark and users of the designated benchmark will be adequately represented on the Oversight Committee.

Responsibilities of Oversight Committee

10. The Oversight Committee of an authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator must, in relation to a designated benchmark, review the adequacy of —

(a) the design of the designated benchmark;
(b) the Code on Designated Benchmark in respect of the designated benchmark;
(c) the arrangements in place to govern the business of administering a designated benchmark including mechanisms for receiving information on suspected or attempted manipulation of the designated benchmark, or failure of any authorised benchmark submitter, exempt benchmark submitter or designated benchmark submitter to comply with the code on designated benchmark in respect of the designated benchmark;

(d) the measures to maintain the confidentiality of all information or expressions of opinion used for the purpose of determining the designated benchmark; and

(e) the external and internal audit function in relation to the business of administering a designated benchmark including reviewing the scope and results of audits as well as the independence and objectivity of the external auditors.

Obligation to notify Authority of certain matters

11.—(1) For the purposes of section 123Q(1)(e)(i) of the Act, an authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall, as soon as practicable after the occurrence of any of the following circumstances, notify the Authority of such circumstance:

(a) any civil or criminal legal proceeding instituted against the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, whether in Singapore or elsewhere;

(b) any disciplinary action taken against the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator or its representatives, as the case may be, by any regulatory authority, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, other than the Authority;

(c) any change to the regulatory requirements imposed on the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, by any regulatory authority, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, other than the Authority;
(d) where the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, suspect that, in relation to the designated benchmark it administers, there has been manipulation or attempted manipulation of the designated benchmark.

(2) Where a circumstance referred to in paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (d) has occurred, the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall, in addition to the notice required under paragraph (1), within 14 days of the occurrence of the circumstance or such longer period as the Authority may permit, submit a report to the Authority of the circumstances relating to the occurrence, the remedial actions taken at the time of the occurrence, and the subsequent follow-up actions that the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, has taken or intends to take.

Obligation to submit periodic reports

12.—(1) For the purposes of section 123S of the Act, an authorised benchmark administrator and exempt benchmark administrator shall submit to the Authority —

(a) within 3 months after the end of its financial year or such longer period as the Authority may permit, a copy of its —

(i) annual report and directors’ report prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act (Cap. 50); and

(ii) auditors’ report of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be;

(b) within 45 days after the end of each of the first 3 quarters of its financial year or such longer period as the Authority may permit, a copy of its —

(i) profit and loss accounts of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator as the case may be for the preceding quarter; and
(ii) balance-sheet of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator as the case may be for the preceding quarter;

(c) within 3 months after the end of its financial year or such longer period as the Authority may permit, a report on how the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, has discharged its responsibilities under the Act during that financial year;

(d) when required by the Authority, a report relating to the business of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, at such time or on such periodic basis as may be specified by the Authority; and

(e) when required by the Authority, such other report as the Authority may require for the proper administration of the Act.

(2) The auditors’ report referred to in paragraph (1)(a)(ii) must be prepared by an auditor approved by the Oversight Committee of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be.

(3) The auditors’ report referred to in paragraph (1)(a)(ii) shall include the findings and recommendations of the auditors, if any, on

(a) the compliance by the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, to its policies and procedures pertaining to its business of administering a designated benchmark;

(b) the internal controls of the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be; and

(c) the non-compliance by the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, with —

   (i) any provision of the Act;
(ii) any direction issued by the Authority under the Act;
(iii) any other relevant laws or regulations.

Notification of change of particulars

13. For the purposes of section 123T of the Act, the authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator, as the case may be, must, furnish particulars of the event to the Authority in Form 3.

Business continuity plan

14. —(1) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall maintain at all times a plan of action (referred to in this regulation as a business continuity plan) setting out the procedures and establishing the systems necessary to restore, in the event of any disruption to the authorised benchmark administrator’s or exempt benchmark administrator’s, as the case may be, business of administering the designated benchmark.

(2) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall review the procedures and systems referred to in paragraph (1) on such regular basis as may be specified in the business continuity plan.

(3) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall immediately notify the Authority of any activation of the authorised benchmark administrator’s or exempt benchmark administrator’s, as the case may be, business continuity plan and of any action taken or intended to restore the authorised benchmark administrator’s or exempt benchmark administrator’s, as the case may be, business of administering the designated benchmark.

(4) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall, within 14 days or such longer period as may be permitted by the Authority, inform the Authority of any material change to the authorised benchmark administrator’s or exempt benchmark administrator’s, as the case may be, business continuity plan, and shall,
if requested by the Authority, submit a copy of the new or amended plan to the Authority.

Transmission and storage of information

15. —(1) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator shall take all reasonable measures to maintain the integrity and security of the transmission and storage of records it is required to maintain under the Act.

(2) An authorised benchmark administrator or exempt benchmark administrator must immediately notify the Authority of —

   (a) any compromise of the integrity or security of the transmission or storage of records it is required to maintain under the Act; and
