#	2012 CG Code	Shifted to
1	Every company should be headed by an effective Board to lead and control the company. The Board is collectively responsible for the long-term success of the company. The Board works with Management to achieve this objective and Management remains accountable to the Board.	Principle 1
1.1	The Board's role is to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) provide entrepreneurial leadership, set strategic objectives, and ensure that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives;</li> <li>(b) establish a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risks to be assessed and managed, including safeguarding of shareholders' interests and the company's assets;</li> <li>(c) review management performance;</li> <li>(d) identify the key stakeholder groups and recognise that their perceptions affect the company's reputation;</li> <li>(e) set the company's values and standards (including ethical standards), and ensure that obligations to shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met; and</li> <li>(f) consider sustainability issues, e.g. environmental and social factors, as part of its strategic formulation.</li> </ul>	Practice Guidance 1, on Board's role (with edits)
1.2	All directors must objectively discharge their duties and responsibilities at all times as fiduciaries in the interests of the company.	Provision 1.1
1.3	The Board may delegate the authority to make decisions to any board committee but without abdicating its responsibility. Any such delegation should be disclosed.	Provision 1.3, Provision 1.4, Practice Guidance 1, on Board organisation and support
1.4	The Board should meet regularly and as warranted by particular circumstances, as deemed appropriate by the board members. Companies are encouraged to amend their Articles of Association (or other constitutive documents) to provide for telephonic and video-conference meetings.	Deleted
	The number of meetings of the Board and board committees held in the year, as well as the attendance of every board member at these meetings, should be disclosed in the company's Annual Report.	Provision 1.5

2.1	There should be a strong and independent element on the Board, with independent directors making up at least one-third of the Board.	SGX Mainboard Rule 210(5)(c)/ Catalyst Rule 406(3)(c)
2.2	The independent directors should make up at least half of the Board where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) the Chairman of the Board (the "Chairman") and the chief executive officer (or equivalent) (the "CEO") is the same person;</li> <li>(b) the Chairman and the CEO are immediate family<sup>3</sup> members;</li> <li>(c) the Chairman is part of the management team; or</li> <li>(d) the Chairman is not an independent director.</li> </ul>	Provision 2.2 (changed to "majority")
2.3	An "independent" director is one who has no relationship with the company, its related corporations <sup>4</sup> , its 10% shareholders or its officers that could interfere, or be reasonably perceived to interfere, with the exercise of the director's independent business judgement with a view to the best interests of the company.	Provision 2.1 (changed to "substantial shareholder")
	The Board should identify in the company's Annual Report each director it considers to be independent.	Proposed SGX Mainboard Rule 1207(10B) / Proposed Catalyst Rule 1204(10B)
	The Board should determine, taking into account the views of the Nominating Committee ("NC"), whether the director is independent in character and judgement and whether there are relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect, or could appear to affect, the director's judgement. Directors should disclose to the Board any such relationship as and when it arises. The Board should state its reasons if it determines that a director is independent notwithstanding the existence of relationships or circumstances which may appear relevant to its determination, including the following:	Provision 4.4

<sup>3</sup> The term "immediate family" shall have the same meaning as currently defined in the Listing Manual of the Singapore Exchange (the "Listing Manual"), i.e. the person's spouse, child, adopted child, step-child, brother, sister and parent.

<sup>4</sup> The term "related corporation", in relation to the company, shall have the same meaning as currently defined in the Companies Act, i.e. a corporation that is the company's holding company, subsidiary or fellow subsidiary.
