business;

(l) the individual is in arrears of the payment of such contributions on his own behalf to the Central Provident Fund as are required under the Central Provident Fund Act (Cap. 36);

(m) the Authority is of the opinion that it would be contrary to the interests of the public to enter the individual’s name in the public register of representatives or allow him to continue carrying on business as an appointed, provisional or temporary representative or to carry on business in that additional type of regulated activity, as the case may be;

(n) the Authority has reason to believe that any information or document that is furnished by him or his principal to the Authority is false or misleading;

(o) he has contravened any provision of this Act applicable to him, any condition or restriction imposed on him under this Act or any direction issued to him by the Authority under this Act;

(oa) it appears to the Authority that he has failed to satisfy any of its obligations under or arising from this Act (including any written direction issued by the Authority under this Act);
Existing Provision

(p) a prohibition order under section 101A has been made by the Authority, and remains in force, against him;

Power of Authority to issue written directions

101. —(1) The Authority may, if it thinks it necessary or expedient in the public interest, issue written directions, either of a general or specific nature, to any holder of a capital markets services licence, exempt person, representative, or class of such persons, to comply with such requirements as the Authority may specify in the written directions.

Power of Authority to make prohibition orders

101A. —(1) The Authority may, by notice in writing, make a prohibition order against a relevant person if —

(a) the Authority suspends or revokes the capital markets services licence held by the person;

(b) where the person is exempt from the requirement to hold a capital markets services licence under section 99(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), the Authority has reason to believe that circumstances exist under interests of the public or a section of the public or for the protection of investors.
Existing Provision

which, if the person were a holder of a capital markets services licence, there would exist a ground on which the Authority may suspend or revoke its licence under section 95;

(c) the Authority suspends or revokes the status of that person as an appointed, provisional or temporary representative;

Proposed Amendment

(ca) in the case of a person (other than a person referred to in subsection (cc)) who is or was a representative of an exempt person, the Authority has reason to believe that circumstances exist under which, if the person was an appointed, provisional or temporary representative, there would exist a ground on which the Authority may revoke his status as an appointed, provisional or temporary representative (as the case may be) under section 99M;

(cb) in the case of a person (other than a person referred to in subsection (cc)) who is or was a representative of a holder of a capital markets services licence, the Authority has reason to believe that circumstances exist under which, there would exist a ground on which the Authority may revoke his status as an appointed, provisional or temporary representative (as the case may be) under section 99M;

(cc) in the case of a person who is or was a representative of an exempt person or a holder of a capital markets services licence, and exempt from the requirement in section 99B(1) pursuant to section 99B(2), the Authority has reason to believe that circumstances exist under which, if the person was an appointed representative, there would exist a ground on which the Authority may revoke his status as an appointed representative under section 99M;
Existing Provision

(d) the Authority has reason to believe that the person is contravening, is likely to contravene or has contravened any provision of this Act;

(e) the person has been convicted of an offence under this Act or has been convicted, whether in Singapore or elsewhere, of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty or the conviction for which involved a finding that he acted fraudulently or dishonestly;

(f) the person has an order for the payment of a civil penalty made against him by a court under Part XII or has entered into an agreement with the Authority to pay a civil penalty under that Part;

(g) the person has been convicted of an offence involving the contravention of any law or requirement of a foreign country or territory relating to any regulated activity carried out by that person; or

(h) the person has been removed at the direction of the Authority from office or employment as an officer of the holder of a capital markets services licence under section 97(1)(h).

Proposed Amendment

(d) the Authority has reason to believe that the person is contravening, is likely to contravene or has contravened -

(i) any provision of this Act;

(ii) any condition or restriction imposed by the Authority under this Act; or

(iii) any written direction issued by the Authority under this Act:
(2) In subsection (1), “relevant person” means —

(a) the holder of a capital markets services licence or a person who was previously such a holder;

(b) a person that is exempt from the requirement to hold a capital markets services licence under section 99(1) or a person who was previously so exempt;

(c) a representative of a person exempt from the requirement to hold a capital markets services licence under section 99(1)(f), (g) or (h) or a person who was previously such a representative;

(d) an appointed, provisional or temporary representative or a person who was previously such a representative;

(e) an officer of the holder of a capital markets services licence or a person that is exempt from the requirement to hold a capital markets services licence under section 99(1), or a person who was previously such an officer; or

(da) a representative exempt from section 99B(1) or a person who was previously such a representative;

Existing Provision

104. — (1) A holder of a capital markets services licence shall, to the extent that it receives money or other assets from or on account of a customer —

(a) do so on the basis that the money or other assets shall be applied solely for such purpose as may be agreed to by the customer, when or before it receives the money or other assets;

(b) pending such application, pay or deposit the money or other assets in such manner as may be prescribed; and

(c) record and maintain a separate book entry for each customer in accordance with the provisions of this Act in relation to that customer’s money or other assets.

(2) The Authority may, without prejudice to section 341, make regulations in respect of all or any of the matters in this Division, including the handling of money or other assets by a holder of a capital markets services licence.

Power of Authority to make regulations

123. — (1) The Authority may make regulations in respect of the conduct of business in any regulated activity by the holder of a capital markets services licence or a representative of such a holder.
Existing Provision

(2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1), regulations made under this section may —

(a) specify requirements applicable to the holder of a capital markets services licence in relation to securities financing;

(aa) specify requirements and restrictions relating to the granting of unsecured advance, unsecured loan or unsecured credit facility by the holder of a capital markets services licence;

(b) prohibit the making of direct or indirect representations, expressly or by implication, relating to specified matters, or the use of misleading or deceptive advertisements by or on behalf of the holder, and impose conditions or restrictions for the use of advertisements by or on behalf of the holder;

Proposed Amendment

(aa) specify items which constitute an unsecured advance, unsecured loan or unsecured credit facility, and specify requirements and restrictions relating to, the granting of such unsecured advance, unsecured loan or unsecured credit facility by the holder of a capital markets services licence;

Investigation by Authority

152. —(1) The Authority may conduct such investigation as it considers necessary or expedient for any of the following
Existing Provision

purposes:

(a) to exercise any of its powers or to perform any of its functions and duties under this Act;

(b) to ensure compliance with this Act or any written direction issued under this Act; or

(c) to investigate an alleged or suspected contravention of any provision of this Act or any written direction issued under this Act.

(6) In this section, “requirement imposed by the Authority” includes a requirement imposed by an investigator under Subdivision (2).

Proposed Amendment

Self-incrimination and savings for advocates and solicitors

153. —(1) A person is not excused from disclosing information to the Authority or, as the case may be, an investigator under Subdivision (2), under a requirement made of him under any provision of this Division on the ground that the disclosure of the information might tend to incriminate him.

(2) Where a person claims, before making a statement
Existing Provision

disclosing information that he is required to under any provision of this Division to the Authority or, as the case may be, an investigator under Subdivision (2), that the statement might tend to incriminate him, that statement —

(a) shall not be admissible in evidence against him in criminal proceedings other than proceedings for an offence under section 162(3); but

(b) shall, for the avoidance of doubt, be admissible in evidence in civil proceedings under Part XII.

Power of Authority to order production of books

163. For the purpose of an investigation under this Division, the Authority may, in writing, require any person at a specified time and place to provide information or produce books relating to any matter under investigation, and such person shall comply with that requirement.

Proposed Amendment

or Subdivision (3)

Power to enter premises without warrant

163A. – (1) In connection with an investigation under this Division, any officer of the Authority who is authorised by the Authority to do so (referred to in this section as an investigator) and such other officers or persons as the Authority has authorised in writing to accompany the investigator (referred to in this section as authorised person) may enter any premises.

(2) No investigator or authorised person shall enter any premises in the exercise of the powers under this section unless the investigator has given the occupier of the premises a written notice which —

(a) gives at least 2 working days’ notice of the intended entry;

(b) indicates the subject matter and purpose of the investigation; and

(c) indicates the nature of the offences created by section 168.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply —

(a) if the investigation relates to a contravention referred
Existing Provision

Proposed Amendment

to in section 152(1)(c) and the investigator has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the premises are, or have been, occupied by a person which is being investigated in relation to the contravention; or

(b) if the investigator has taken all such steps as are reasonably practicable to give notice but has not been able to do so.

(4) Where subsection (3) applies, the power of entry conferred by subsection (1) shall be exercised upon production of —

(a) evidence of the investigator’s authorisation and the authorisation of every authorised person accompanying him; and

(b) a document containing the information referred to in subsection (2)(b) and (c).

(5) An investigator or authorised person entering any premises under this section may —

(a) take with him such equipment as appears to him to be necessary;

(b) require any person on the premises to produce any book which he considers relates to any matter relevant to the investigation;
Application for warrant to seize books not produced

164. (1) Where the Authority has reasonable grounds to suspect that there is, on any particular premises, any book the production of which has been required under section 163, and—

(a) which has not been produced in compliance with that requirement; or

(b) which the Authority has reasonable grounds to believe will not be produced in compliance with that requirement, the Authority may apply to a Magistrate for the issue of a warrant to search the premises for such book.

(2) Whenever it appears to a Magistrate, upon an application made under subsection (1), and after such enquiry as he may think necessary, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is, on particular premises, any book the production of which has been required under section 163, and—

(a) which has not been produced in compliance with

Proposed Amendment

(c) require any person to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where any such book is to be found; and

(d) take any step or issue any requirement to any person which appears to be necessary for the purpose of preserving or preventing interference with any book which he considers relates to any matter relevant to the investigation.
Existing Provision

that requirement; or

(b) which the Magistrate has reasonable grounds to suspect will not be produced in compliance with that requirement, the Magistrate may issue a warrant authorising the Authority or any person named therein, with or without assistance—

(i) to enter and search the premises and to break open and search anything, whether a fixture or not, in the premises; and

(ii) to take possession of, or secure against interference, any book that appears to be a book the production of which was so required.

(3) The powers conferred under subsections (1) and (2) are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers conferred by any other written law or rule of law.

(4) In this section, “premises” includes any structure, building, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

Proposed Amendment

Application for warrant to seize books not produced

164. – (1) The Authority may apply to a Magistrate for a warrant and the Magistrate may issue such a warrant if he is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that there is, on any particular premises, any book—

(a) the production of which has been required under section 163 or 163A, and which has not been produced in compliance with that requirement; or

(b) which the Authority has power under section 163 to require to be produced and if the books were required to be produced, they would not be produced but would be concealed, removed, tampered with or destroyed.

(2) A warrant under this section shall authorise the Authority or any person named therein, with or without assistance—

(a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant, using such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose;

(b) to search the premises and to break open and search anything, whether a fixture or not, in the premises;

(c) to take possession of, or secure against interference, any book that appears to be a book of a kind in respect
Existing Provision

Proposed Amendment

of which the application under subsection (1) was granted;

(d) to require any person to provide an explanation of any book that appears to be a book of a kind in respect of which the application under subsection (1) was granted, or to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where it may be found;

(e) to search any person on those premises if there are reasonable grounds for believing that that person has in his possession any book, equipment or article which has a bearing on the investigation concerned; and

(f) to remove from those premises for examination any equipment or article which relates to any matter relevant to the investigation concerned.

(3) If, in the case of a warrant issued under subsection (2), the Magistrate is satisfied that it is reasonable to suspect that there are also on the premises other books relating to the investigation concerned, the warrant shall also authorise the actions mentioned in subsections 2(a) to (f) to be taken in relation to any such book.

(4) The Authority or any person named in the warrant may allow any equipment or article which has a bearing on an investigation and which may be removed from any premises for examination under subsection (2)(f) to be retained on those premises subject to such conditions as the Authority or person named in the warrant may require.

(5) Any person entering premises by virtue of a warrant under this section may take with him such equipment as appears to him to be necessary.

(6) Where a warrant is issued under subsection (2) and there is no one at the premises when the Authority or any person named in the warrant proposes to execute such a warrant, the Authority or any person named in the warrant shall, before executing it –

(a) take such steps as are reasonable in all the circumstances to inform the occupier of the intended entry; and

(b) if the occupier is informed, afford him or his legal or other representative a reasonable opportunity to be present when the warrant is executed.

(7) If the Authority or any person named in the warrant is unable to inform the occupier of the intended entry, the Authority or any person named in the warrant shall, when executing the warrant, leave a copy of it in a prominent place on the premises.

(8) On leaving any premises which the Authority or any person named in the warrant has entered by virtue of a warrant under
Existing Provision

Powers where books are produced or seized

165. — (1) This section shall apply where —

(a) books are produced to the Authority under a requirement made under section 163;

(b) under a warrant issued under section 164, the Authority or a person named therein —

(i) takes possession of books; or

(ii) secures books against interference; or

(c) under a previous application of subsection (6), books are delivered into the possession of the Authority or a person authorised by it.

(9) The powers conferred under subsections (1) to (5) are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers conferred by any other written law or rule of law.

(10) In this section,

“premises” includes any structure, building, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

“occupier”, in relation to any premises, means a person whom the Authority or any person named in the warrant reasonably believes is the occupier of those premises.

Proposed Amendment

this section, the Authority or any person named in the warrant shall, if the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, leave them as effectively secured as the Authority or any person named in the warrant found them.

(9) The powers conferred under subsections (1) to (5) are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers conferred by any other written law or rule of law.

(10) In this section,

“premises” includes any structure, building, aircraft, vehicle or vessel.

“occupier”, in relation to any premises, means a person whom the Authority or any person named in the warrant reasonably believes is the occupier of those premises.

(ai) books are produced to the Authority during an entry into premises under section 163A:
Existing Provision

(2) If subsection (1)(a) applies, the Authority may take possession of any of the books.

(3) The Authority or, where applicable, a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) may —

(a) inspect, and may make copies of, or take extracts from, any of the books;

(b) use, or permit the use of, any of the books for the purposes of any proceedings; and

(c) retain possession of any of the books for so long as is necessary —

(i) for the purposes of exercising a power conferred by this section (other than subsection (5));

(ii) for a decision to be made about whether or not any proceedings to which the books concerned would be relevant should be instituted; or

(iii) for such proceedings to be instituted and carried on.

(4) No person shall be entitled, as against the Authority or, where applicable, a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) to claim a lien on any of the books, but such a lien is not otherwise prejudiced.

Proposed Amendment

or (ai)

(d) require any book which is stored in any electronic form and which the Authority or, where applicable, a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) considers relates to any matter relevant to the investigation concerned, to be produced in a form —

(i) in which it can be taken away; and

(ii) in which it is visible and legible.
Existing Provision

(5) While the books are in the possession of the Authority or, where applicable, the person referred to in subsection (1)(b), the Authority or person —

(a) shall permit another person to inspect at all reasonable times such of the books (if any) as the second-mentioned person would be entitled to inspect if they were not in possession of the Authority or the first-mentioned person; and

(b) may permit any other person to inspect any of the books.

(6) Unless subsection (1)(b)(ii) applies, a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) may deliver any of the books into the possession of the Authority or of a person authorised by the Authority to receive them.

(7) Where subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies, the Authority, a person referred to in subsection (1)(b) or a person into whose possession the books are delivered under subsection (6), may require —

(a) if subsection (1)(a) applies, a person who so produced any of the books; or

(b) in any other case, a person who was a party to the compilation of any of the books, to explain to the best of his knowledge and belief any matter

Existing Provision

about the compilation of any of the books or to which any of the books relate.

Requirement for trustees

265A.—(1) Where an offer of debentures is made in or accompanied by a prospectus, the borrowing entity shall appoint a trustee for the holders of debentures (referred to in this section as appointed trustee) and ensure that a trustee is appointed for the entire tenure of the debentures.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, subsection (1) shall not apply to an offer which is made pursuant to an exemption under Subdivision (4) of this Division.

(3) The borrowing entity shall ensure that the appointed trustee—

(a) is an entity that is—

(i) a holder of a trust business licence under the Trust Companies Act (Cap. 336); or

(ii) exempt from holding a trust business licence under the Trust Companies Act (Cap. 336);

(b) meet such requirements as may be prescribed by the Authority;

(c) in respect of debentures issued as asset-backed securities or structured notes by an entity other than a specified financial institution, be carrying on business in Singapore; and

(d) in respect of debentures issued by a specified financial institution, be carrying on business in Singapore unless the borrowing entity is reasonably satisfied that the trustee can and will take timely and appropriate action on behalf of the holders of debentures in the event of a default or as required by the trust deed.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(d), the borrowing entity shall, in determining whether the trustee can and will take timely and appropriate action on behalf of the holders of debentures in the event of a default or as required by the trust deed, consider among other things –

(i) whether the trustee is licensed or regulated in its home jurisdiction;

(ii) the contractual arrangements between the borrowing entity and the trustee; and

(iii) the duties imposed on the trustee by way of the trust deed and the laws applicable to the trustee.

(5) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1), (3) or (4) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.

Obligations of borrowing entities of debentures that are not listed on securities exchange 268A.—(1) A borrowing entity of debentures which are not listed on a securities exchange (referred to in this section as unlisted debentures) shall prepare and make available to holders of the debentures semi-annual reports covering every six month period commencing from the date of issuance of the debentures, in accordance with this section and such requirements as may be prescribed by the Authority.

(2) Where there is a trustee for the holders of unlisted debentures, the borrowing entity shall ensure that the semi-annual reports required under subsection (1) are lodged with the trustee.

(3) Where the borrowing entity does not lodge with the trustee for the holders of unlisted debentures a report as required by subsection (2), the trustee shall immediately lodge notice of that fact with the Authority.

(4) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall only apply in the case where the unlisted debentures have a tenure of 12 months or longer.

(5) A borrowing entity shall immediately disclose to holders of unlisted debentures any information which may materially affect

(a) the risks and returns; or

(a) advertise the offer or intended offer; or

(b) publish a statement that —

(i) directly or indirectly refers to the offer or intended offer; or

(ii) is reasonably likely to induce persons to subscribe for or purchase the units or derivatives of units, unless the advertisement or publication is authorised by this section.

(8) After a prospectus or profile statement is registered with the Authority, an advertisement or a publication does not contravene subsection (1) if —
Existing Provision

(a) it includes a statement that the prospectus or profile statement in respect of the offer of units or derivatives of units in the business trust is available for collection at the times and places specified in the statement;

(b) it includes a statement that anyone wishing to acquire the units or derivatives of units in the business trust will need to make an application in the manner set out in the prospectus or profile statement; and

(c) it does not contain any information that is not included in the prospectus or profile statement.

Offer made under certain circumstances

282X. —(1) Subdivision (2) of this Division (other than subsection (1)(a) of sections 282C and 282Q) shall not apply to an offer of units or derivatives of units in a business trust if —

(a) it is made in connection with a take-over offer which is in compliance with the Take-over Code;

(7) The Authority may, on making a declaration under subsection (6), impose such conditions or restrictions on the offer as the Authority may determine.

(8) A declaration made under subsection (6) shall be final.

Proposed Amendment

(8) After a prospectus or profile statement is registered with the Authority, an advertisement or a publication does not contravene subsection (1) if —

(a) it includes a statement that the prospectus or profile statement in respect of the offer of units or derivatives of units in the business trust is available for collection at the times and places specified in the statement;

300. —(1) If a prospectus is required for an offer, or intended offer of units in a collective investment scheme or proposed collective investment scheme, a person shall not —

(a) advertise the offer or intended offer; or

(b) publish a statement that —

(i) directly or indirectly refers to the offer or intended offer; or

(ii) is reasonably likely to induce people to subscribe for or purchase the units,

unless the advertisement or publication is authorised by this section.

(2) In determining whether a statement —

(3) Except where compelled to do so by the laws or courts of Singapore or any territory outside Singapore, or any listing rules or other requirements of a securities exchange, futures exchange, overseas securities exchange or overseas futures exchange, no person shall publish or disseminate any advertisement, whether in or outside Singapore, on an offer or intended offer of units in a collective investment scheme or proposed collective investment scheme, which resembles or may otherwise be confused with a product highlights sheet.

(4) The Authority may, for public information, publish —

(a) a product highlights sheet lodged with the Authority under this section; and

(b) where applicable, the translation thereof in the English language submitted to the Authority under section 318A(1).

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.

309A. — (1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires —

“issuer”, in relation to an offer of capital markets products, means the entity that issued or will be issuing the capital markets product being offered;

“prospectus” means any prospectus, notice, circular, material, advertisement, publication or other document used to make an offer of a capital market product.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, a person makes an offer of capital markets products if, and only if, as principal —

(a) he makes (either personally or by an agent) an offer to any person in Singapore which upon acceptance would give rise to a contract for the issue or sale of those capital markets products by him or another person with whom he has made arrangements for that issue or sale; or

(b) he invites (either personally or by an agent) any person in Singapore to make an offer which upon acceptance would give rise to a contract for the issue or sale of those capital markets products by him or another person with whom he has made arrangements for that issue or sale.

(3) In subsection (2), “sale” includes any disposal for valuable consideration.

Obligation to classify products and notify relevant persons

309B. – (1) No issuer shall make an offer of a capital markets product unless he has –

(a) determined whether the product belongs to such class of specified products as the Authority may prescribe;

(b) where the product is listed for quotation or quoted on a market operated by an approved exchange, notified the approved exchange in writing as to whether the product belongs to such class of specified products as the Authority may prescribe; and

(c) where an offer of the product is made through a holder of a capital markets services licence or through a financial adviser as defined in section 2(1) of the Financial Advisers Act (Cap. 110), notified the holder of a capital markets services licence or financial adviser in writing as to whether the product belongs to such class of specified products as the Authority may prescribe.

(2) Where there is a change in the classification of a capital markets product after the determination made in subsection (1) (a), the issuer concerned shall –

(a) where the product is listed for quotation or quoted on an approved exchange, notify the approved exchange in writing of the new classification of the product; and
PART XIV

APPEALS

Appeals to Minister

310. —(1) Where an appeal is made to the Minister under this Act, the Minister may confirm, vary or reverse the decision of the Authority on appeal, or give such directions in the matter as he thinks fit, and the decision of the Minister shall be final.

(b) where an offer of the product is made through a holder of a capital markets services licence or through a financial adviser as defined in section 2 (1) of the Financial Advisers Act (Cap. 110), notify the holder of a capital markets services licence or financial adviser in writing of the new classification of the product, within such period of time as prescribed by the Authority.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.

Use of terms “capital protected” or “principal protected”

309C. — (1) No person shall, when describing or referring to any capital markets product which is, will be or has been the subject of an offer or intended offer, use the terms “capital protected” or “principal protected” or any of their derivatives in any language in the name or within the prospectus related to the capital markets product.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $5,000 for every day or part thereof during which the offence continues after conviction.
