What is SGFinDex?

Introduction to Singapore Financial Data Exchange (SGFinDex)
Question 1	What is SGFinDex?
Answer	SGFinDex stands for Singapore Financial Data Exchange. It is a digital infrastructure that enables you to retrieve and share your financial data from Government agencies (via MyInfo) and private sector organisations (e.g. Bank A) with an organisation (e.g. Bank B) of your choice. This is a joint initiative by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS), the Smart Nation and Digital Government Group (SNDGG), and financial institutions.
Question 2	How does SGFinDex work and how can it benefit me?
Answer	SGFinDex is a digital infrastructure linking the various data sources from participating entities to facilitate the sharing of your personal financial information. Question 3	Can I use a participating financial planning application/website to perform any transactions in my bank account(s)?
Answer	No. A participating financial planning application/website enables you to view the account balance in your bank account(s), but you cannot use it to perform transactions in your bank account(s).
Question 4	Is there a charge to use SGFinDex?
Answer	No. Currently, you will not be charged for using SGFinDex via a participating financial planning application/website.

Answer	Data will be shared through SGFinDex only with your consent. Specifically, your consent will be needed (a) for banks and government agencies to release data via SGFinDex and (b) for the participating financial planning applications/websites to retrieve data via SGFinDex. Your financial and account information will be encrypted and is not visible to SGFinDex. SGFinDex cannot read and will not store your financial data. Please refer to Question 13: "How do I authorise my banks to release data?"
Question 9	I have consented for my data in Bank A and Bank B to be shared through SGFinDex with my selected financial planning application/website. Does that mean that all other participating financial planning applications/websites will now automatically have my data?
Answer	No, other participating financial planning applications/websites will not be able to retrieve your data without your consent. A participating financial planning application/website will need to obtain your consent each time to retrieve your data after you log in to the application/website. Data will only be retrieved upon your instruction to do so, even if you had previously authorised your banks and government agencies to release your data through SGFinDex.

Question 21	Can I authorise my banks to release data through SGFinDex without internet banking access?
Answer	No, you will not be able to authorise your banks to release data through SGFinDex without internet banking access.
Question 22	Why am I unable to access my banks' internet banking page?
Answer	This could be due to various reasons, including technical issues and access restrictions based on where you are accessing it from. Please contact your bank for assistance.
Consent Duration for Release of data
Question 23	How long does my consent for data release last?
Answer	Your consent period will last for one year from the time your first consent was provided.  For example, if you had provided consent to Bank A to provide your data through SGFinDex on 1 st January 2021, and subsequently had provided consent to Bank B on 1 st March 2021, all consents (i.e. consent to Bank A and B) will expire on 31 st December 2021.  You will have to authorise your banks again if you wish to release your data on 1 st January 2022.
Question 24	Can my consent period be set to last forever?
Answer	No. For your security, your consent is set to expire after one year.
Question 25	Can the consent period be less than a year? Can I choose the expiry date?
Answer	No, you cannot choose the expiry date of your consent. Consent provided to the respective banks will expire one year from the time your consent was provided to the first bank.  However, you can revoke consent for some or all the banks that you have granted consent to before the one-year consent validity period is up. For more information on how to revoke your consent, please contact the respective banks or refer to the "Revocation" section of this document.
Question 26	Can I choose not to share MyInfo data (i.e. your data kept with government agencies) with my bank?

This is to provide you with a consolidated overview of your personal financial health.  If you do not wish to share your MyInfo data with your bank, you can use the Ministry of Manpower's MyMoneySense ( https://www.mymoneysense.gov.sg ). Answer	Yes, you are able to, provided you give consent to Bank C to retrieve your financial data in Banks A and B through SGFinDex.

Question 30	I qualify to be an Accredited Investor (AI) but am not identified/opted in as an AI with any banks. Can I retrieve my personal financial data through SGFinDex?
Answer	Yes, you will be able to do so after you provide consent using any of your banks' financial planning applications/websites or MyMoneySense.
Question 31	I am identified as an Accredited Investor (AI) with Bank A but am not with Bank B and Bank C. Can I retrieve my personal financial data through SGFinDex?

Answer	The balance displayed in OA and/or SA funds is updated based on the latest transactions, while banks are providing historical data (as of last month-end) for your investment sales. Hence, for sales with OA and/or SA, you will notice that your OA and/or SA fund balance will be increased within a few days after the sales of the investment due to the crediting of the sales proceeds.
