Question 21	Can I authorise my banks/CDP to release data through SGFinDex without internet login access to my banks/CDP?
Answer	No, you will not be able to authorise your banks/ CDP to release data through SGFinDex without internet login access to them.
Question 22	Why am I unable to access the internet login page of my banks/CDP?
Answer	This could be due to various reasons, including technical issues and access restrictions based on where you are accessing it from. Please contact your bank or CDP for assistance.
Consent Duration for Release of data
Question 23	How long does my consent for data release last?
Answer	Your consent period will last for one year from the time your first consent was provided.  For example, if you had provided consent to Bank A to provide your data through SGFinDex on 1 st January 2021, and subsequently had provided consent to Bank B on 1 st March 2021, all consents (i.e. consent to Bank A and B) will expire on 31 st December 2021.  You will have to authorise your financial institutions again if you wish to release your data on 1 st January 2022.

Question 25	Can the consent period be less than a year? Can I choose the expiry date?
Answer	No, you cannot choose the expiry date of your consent. Consent provided to the respective financial institutions will expire one year from the time your consent was provided to the first financial institution.  However, you can revoke consent for some or all the financial institutions that you have granted consent to before the one-year consent validity period is up. For more information on how to revoke your consent, please contact the respective financial institution or refer to the “Revocation” section of this document.
Question 26	Can I choose not to share Myinfo data (i.e. your data kept with government agencies) with my bank?
Answer	No. Myinfo data will always be retrieved when you request to retrieve your data via SGFinDex. This is to provide you with a consolidated overview of your personal financial health.  If you do not wish to share your Myinfo data with your bank, you can use the Ministry of Manpower’s MyMoneySense ( https://www.mymoneysense.gov.sg ). MyMoneySense is a website independent of banks.

Question 27	I have banking relations with Banks A, B and C. Through SGFinDex, I give consent to retrieve my data from Bank A and Bank B, but not from Bank C. Am I able to view my data from Banks A and B using Bank C's financial planning application/website?
Answer	Yes, you are able to, provided you give consent to Bank C to retrieve your financial data in Banks A and B through SGFinDex.
Question 28	I have banking relations with Banks A, B and C. When I access Ministry of Manpower's MyMoneySense and give consent to retrieve my data from Bank A and Bank B, what data will I see on MyMoneySense?

Accredited Investors
Question 29	I am an Accredited Investor (AI). Can I retrieve my personal financial data through SGFinDex?
Answer	No. If you are identified as an AI or opted in to be an AI with a bank (e.g. Bank A), Bank A will not provide your data (including accounts where you are a joint account holder) through SGFinDex. As a result, your data kept with Bank A cannot be retrieved.  For example, you are identified as an AI in Bank A but not in Bank B and Bank C. Bank A will not be providing your data through SGFinDex. Thus, Bank B and Bank C will not be able to retrieve your data in Bank A. Nevertheless, you can still use Bank A, B and C's financial planning applications/websites to retrieve and consolidate data from both Bank B and Bank C, in addition to your Myinfo data.
Question 30	I qualify to be an Accredited Investor (AI) but am not identified/opted in as an AI with any banks. Can I retrieve my personal financial data through SGFinDex?
Answer	Yes, you will be able to do so after you provide consent using any of your banks' financial planning applications/websites or MyMoneySense.
Question 31	I am identified as an Accredited Investor (AI) with Bank A but am not with Bank B and Bank C. Can I retrieve my personal financial data through SGFinDex?
Answer	Yes, you can retrieve personal financial data kept with Bank B and Bank C through SGFinDex. However, as you are identified as an AI with Bank A, Bank A will not be providing your data (including accounts where you are a joint account holder) through SGFinDex. As a result, your data with Bank A cannot be retrieved.  Nevertheless, you can still use Bank A, B or C financial planning applications/ websites to retrieve and consolidate data from both Bank B and Bank C, in addition to your Myinfo data.

CPF Investment Scheme (CPFIS) with Ordinary and Special Account – Sales and Purchases
Question 47	Why is the asset value of my investment purchased via CPFIS with my Ordinary Account (OA) and/or Special Account (SA) lower than expected?
Answer	The balance displayed in OA and/or SA funds is updated based on the latest transactions, while banks are providing historical data (as of last month-end) for your investment purchases.

	Hence, for purchases with OA and/or SA, you will notice that your OA and/or SA fund balance will be reduced within a few days due to the withdrawal of funds to purchase the investment. Question 48	Why is the asset value of my investment higher than expected after sales of investment with CPFIS with my OA and/or SA?
Answer	The balance displayed in OA and/or SA funds is updated based on the latest transactions, while banks are providing historical data (as of last month-end) for your investment sales. Hence, for sales with OA and/or SA, you will notice that your OA and/or SA fund balance will be increased within a few days after the sales of the investment due to the crediting of the sales proceeds. However, the investment holdings sold will only be updated in the next month, leading to a higher asset value this month.

Gold Holdings – SRS and CPFIS
Question 49	Why is the portfolio value for gold different across the various financial planning applications/websites?
Answer	A gold portfolio value is calculated based on the spot rate of gold. As each bank and Ministry of Manpower uses different quotations for spot rates of gold (similar to FX), the portfolio value of gold shown across the different financial planning applications/ websites may be different.
Question 50	Why is the portfolio value for my gold holdings different from the one from Central Provident Fund Board (CPFIB)?
Answer	The value shown on CPFIB reflects the purchase value whereas the value shown on financial planning application/websites reflects the market value of your gold holdings. The market value of your gold holdings may have increased or decreased as compared to the purchase value.
Insurance data – SRS and CPFIS
Question 51	What does the amount reported under insurance bought with SRS and CPFIS represent?

Question 53	How do I derive the market value of my SGS/SSB holdings?
Answer	For SGS Bonds, market value is provided in SGFinDex. For SSB, the market value may be derived by adding the par value (shown as Market Value via SGFinDex) and Accrued Interest (obtainable from https://eservices.mas.gov.sg/ssb/calculator )
Question 54	Will the CDP data reflect the shares that I have custodised with my brokerage firm?
Answer	No, the CDP data will only show the investments under your CDP direct account. If you have shares that are custodised outside your CDP direct account, it will not be reflected.
Question 55	Why is the CDP data shown on MyMoneySense or participating banks’ (e.g. Bank A) financial planning applications/websites different from the data shown in my CDP portfolio in SGX Investor Portal?
Answer	The CDP information retrieved through SGFinDex represents the month end account balance. This may be different from what is displayed on your CDP portfolio in SGX Investor Portal which is more updated.

	If there is missing data, it could be due to a technical issue. Please contact the entity providing the financial planning applications/websites for further assistance.

Revocation of Consent

Revoking Consent
Question 56	What happens when I revoke my consent for a Data Contributor (e.g. banks/CDP) in SGFinDex?
Answer	Upon revocation of your consent for a Data Contributor, updated financial data from the Data Contributor will no longer be retrievable through SGFinDex from the financial planning applications/websites of the seven participating banks and MOM. Past financial data from the Data Contributor (e.g. Bank A) that had been retrieved using the financial planning applications/websites of the other banks (e.g. Bank B) and/or MOM will however not be deleted from their (e.g. Bank B) databases and thus you may still see the financial data previously retrieved on the financial planning applications/websites (e.g. Bank B). Data is not deleted because banks need to meet legislative requirements, such as Anti-Money Laundering / Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) rules on data retention. Banks and/or MOM may also use past data to respond to queries, feedback and complaints from the customer in relation to services which banks and/or MOM had provided based on the data. Please contact your bank or MOM if you have any further questions.
Question 57	How do I revoke my consent for Data Contributors (e.g. banks/CDP) to release data?
