

Computation of the Seller's Stamp Duty (SSD) for properties bought on or after 30 August 2010 and sold within 3 years of purchase

Example 1:

Mr Lee purchased his residential property on 1 September 2010 and sold it on 31 August 2011 for $1,500,000.

- Holding period: 1 year (i.e. full SSD rate is chargeable)
- SSD payable :

1st	$180,000	(1% of $180,000)	$1,800
Next	$180,000	(2% of $180,000)	$3,600
Next	$1,140,000	(3% of $1,140,000)	$34,200
			$39,600

Example 2:

Mr Tan purchased his residential property on 1 September 2010 and sold it on 31 August 2012 for $1,500,000.

- Holding period: 2 years (i.e. 2/3 of the full SSD rate is chargeable)
- SSD payable :

1st	$180,000	(1% of $180,000)	$1,800
Next	$180,000	(2% of $180,000)	$3,600
Next	$1,140,000	(3% of $1,140,000)	$34,200
			$39,600
2/3 thereof			$26,400

Example 3:

Mr Lim purchased his residential property on 1 September 2010 and sold it on 31 August 2013 for $1,500,000.

- Holding period: 3 years (i.e. 1/3 of the full SSD rate is chargeable)
- SSD payable :

1st	$180,000	(1% of $180,000)	$1,800
Next	$180,000	(2% of $180,000)	$3,600
Next	$1,140,000	(3% of $1,140,000)	$34,200
			$39,600
	1/3 thereof		$13,200

Example 4:

Mr Ang purchased his residential property on 1 September 2010 and sold it on 1 September 2013 for $1,500,000.

- Holding period: More than 3 years. No SSD is payable.
- SSD payable: $0