PRICING OF THE NEW 30Y GREEN SINGAPORE GOVERNMENT SECURITIES (SGS) (INFRASTRUCTURE) (JUN-54); PUBLIC OFFER TO OPEN FOR INDIVIDUAL INVESTORS ON 23 MAY 2024

The Monetary Authority of Singapore (“MAS”) today announced that S$2.5 billion of the new 30-year Green SGS (Infrastructure) NA24300E (the “Jun-54 bond”) was priced at 3.30%. S$2.45 billion of the Jun-54 bond was placed with institutional and accredited investors. The remaining S$50 million of the Jun-54 bond will be offered to individual investors from 9:00a.m. on 23 May 2024 to 12:00 noon on 27 May 2024.

2 Proceeds from the Jun-54 bond will be used to finance expenditures in support of the Singapore Green Plan 2030, including the Jurong Region Line and Cross Island Line, to build green infrastructure for a financially and environmentally sustainable future.

Placement to institutional investors

3 The yield of 3.30% represented a tightening of -16 basis points from the initial price guidance at the start of the book-building. The placement size of S$2.45 billion was at the top end of the targeted issuance size, backed by a combined placement orderbook of about S$6.0 billion (2.45 times the size of the amount offered under the placement). A diverse mix of high-quality institutions invested in the Jun-54 bond. Citigroup Global Markets Singapore Pte. Ltd., DBS Bank Ltd. (DBS), The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited Singapore Branch, Standard Chartered Bank (Singapore) Limited, and United Overseas Bank Limited (UOB) were the bookrunners for the transaction.

Public Offer to individual investors

4 The Jun-54 bond will be open for applications from individual investors from 9:00a.m. on 23 May 2024 to 12:00 noon on 27 May 2024. S$50 million of the Jun-54 bond will be offered to the public. The effective yield will be 3.30%, as determined through the institutional book-building process¹. This entails a price of S$99.053 per S$100 in principal value, based on the Jun-54 bond’s coupon rate of 3.25% per annum².

5 Individual investors who wish to subscribe to the Jun-54 bond should review the product details carefully, and assess whether the risk/returns and characteristics of long-tenor bonds meet their financial needs. Investments in SGS, including the Jun-54 bond, bear market risk. If investors sell the bond before its maturity date, they may receive less, or more, than their original investment, as the market price of the bond may rise or fall with changing market conditions.

² More information on the Jun-54 bond can be found on the MAS website (link).

6 All applications for the Public Offer should be made using the Electronic Securities Application (ESA) or Initial Public Offer (IPO) Application, which is available via the application channels³ of DBS (including POSB), Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation Limited (OCBC), and UOB. As the application process differs from that of SGS issued via auctions, investors should familiarise themselves with the application instructions before making their applications. This includes taking note of the following key features:

- Each application unit represents S$100 in principal amount of the bonds and has a settlement price of S$99.053.
- Each application must be made in respect of a minimum of 10 application units or in multiples of 10 application units (10 application units representing S$1,000 in principal amount of the bonds and with a settlement price of S$990.53).
- Only one application per individual (across all banks) will be accepted. Multiple applications will be rejected.
- In the event of over-subscription, MAS will seek to allocate the bonds to as many individuals as possible, taking into account the distribution of applications.
